Somethin's different

SLIMMER AILEEN'S FELLA'S DOUBLE-TAKE

By KRIS GILMARTIN

SLIM Aileen Hendry's fella doesn't recognise her from pics taken less than a year ago.

Aileen's weight was spiralling out of control when she went on a radical diet in January.

The 27-year-old council worker, of Aberdeen, went from 18 to 11 stones in just 10 months. She said: "I'd only have four packets of soup a day and four litres of water. It became a way of life."

Aileen's transformation is so complete boyfriend Gavin can't believe she's the same woman in pics from last Christmas. She said: "Gavin has only known me thin. He doesn't recognise a picture of me fat, my old self."

"It's a whole new world for me now, buying clothes from a normal shop, it's just the greatest Christmas present I could ask for.

"I'm going to be sensible around Christmas with what I eat, but I'm still going to have fun."
